

Shun scissors from KAI – Effortless precision for kitchen and home

Mood image Shun Scissors

The renowned cutlery manufacturer KAI presents household, multipurpose and herb scissors within the premium Shun series. Each pair of scissors showcases KAI's enduring quality, brimming with cleverly designed features. Their versatility makes them the perfect choice for a wide range of cutting tasks in the kitchen, from preparing ingredients to everyday housework. Their understated yet timeless design blends seamlessly into any setting.

The new Shun multipurpose scissors DM-7300 (RRP 69.95 € including VAT) are a testament to innovation and precision. Their sharp blades glide through a multitude of materials with ease. One of the two blades also features a bone notch. Ideal for separating poultry bones when preparing meals, the bone notch also tackles tasks like neatly trimming flower stems.

The handles of the scissors also conceal a trove of hidden kitchen utensils and tools. Integrated into their design are a dedicated nutcracker and a crown cap opener. Nestled in the handle's base lies another ingenious feature: two integrated stainless steel cap lifters, which allow vacuum-sealed screw caps to be easily opened.

The new Shun household scissors DM-7240 (RRP 109.00 € incl. VAT) boast meticulously honed matte blades that glide through tough cuts with effortless precision. The ergonomically sculpted handles effortlessly cradle your hands throughout your culinary journey. These kitchen scissors also boast an integrated bone notch on one blade, and a clever stainless steel cap lifter on the handle that conquers even the tightest vacuum seals, making them an ideal helper in the kitchen and household.

Shun herb scissors DM-7100 (RRP 59.95 € incl. VAT) tackle all types of herbs with effortless precision, and ease even sturdy stems. These scissors also have an integrated stem puller that makes quick work of trimming herbs like rosemary. The generously sized handles provide a secure and comfortable grip during use.

Shun scissors are manufactured from stainless steel blades. They also disassemble effortlessly into two parts, making thorough and easy cleaning a breeze.

Shun DM-7100 herb scissors are already available as part of the existing KAI range. The new KAI Shun multipurpose scissors DM-7300 will be available from May, the Shun household scissors DM-7240 from June 2024.

About KAI:

For over 115 years, the KAI company has been producing cutlery in the tradition of the legendary samurai of ancient Japan. The desire to preserve ancient traditions and combine them with innovative techniques is not a contradiction but forms the basis for new products that honour the Japanese art of forging while meeting modern demands. With the highest quality standards, KAI has made it its mission to produce special knives for everyday use. Made from natural resources, shaped and designed according to the expertise of the ancient Samurai blacksmithing art, KAI products are a symbol of Japanese craftsmanship made with the highest precision.
